Admissions Agreement—Must be signed by parent and student

Choosing to attend North Montco Technical Career Center (NMTCC) requires making an informed and responsible career decision. A student's success and continued enrollment will depend on the following:

1. Regular Attendance – You will be expected to be prompt and attend regularly.
2. Positive Behavior and Self-Discipline – You will be expected to work cooperatively with all staff and students demonstrating respect and self-control at all times.
3. Effort and Safety – You will be expected to participate actively in all educational activities as directed by the teacher, achieve to the best of your ability, and adhere to all safety rules and regulations. Furthermore, you agree not to attempt any procedure, use any tools/equipment or handle any supply or material without proper training and the approval of the assigned teacher.
4. Financial Requirement – You will be required to purchase certain items that uniquely pertain to your particular program (e.g. personal safety equipment, clothing and/or selected tools). Please see cost of individual programs by going to nmtcc.org.

Both the students and the parents agree to the aforementioned requirements and acknowledge the inherent risk and potential for injury involved in career and technical programs. Failure to comply with the requirements may result in removal from NMTCC and reassignment to a more appropriate educational program.

I am committed to the admissions agreement and request admission to the program/course as indicated.
